SECOND AND LAST
"JESEBEL" MATINER,
SATURDAY, at 1% o'clock.
Mr. Daly begs to announce that, notwithstanding the very emphatic impression which Mr. BOUCHCAULT'S brilliant play has made, JESEBEL must be withdrawn for the present on account of the engagement (already announced), with the distinguished and celebrated comedian, MP. CULTURE 18 who will make his first appearance at this theatre on Monday night, April 10, 1871, as Mr. MOPUS in the comedy of MARRIED FOR MONEY, and as CAPTAIN PATTER in the amusing afterpiece of PATTER VS. CLATTER. Mr. DALV has been induced in this instance to diverge from the rule of his management in regard to special engagement, in order to afford the public an opportunity of wincessing at this theatre the farewell personations on the American stage of this most famous living representative of light comedy. Mr. MATHEWS' engagement is limited, and none of the pieces will be repeated beyond the time announced in each programme.

"THE EOX SHRET for 12 days in advance will be need on Tuesday morning, at 8 A. M. MR. CHARLES MATHEWS.
